

Monday 23rd May
DPL MediaCityUK
7pm

Showing as part of Create Salford 2016.

As part of the Create Festival Movement as Stillness will present a scratch performance. The scratch performance will draw from the work they have been creating surrounding everyday objects and tasks.

The ensemble members are Jennifer Willett, Ciara Tansey, Ada Agratini, Charlie Joachim-Farrow and Claire Wood.

Jennifer Willett is a final year practice as research PhD student, performance practitioner and Graduate teacher in the School of Arts and Media at the University of Salford. Her specialism is contemporary theatre with research interests that include the formation of emerging performance ensembles. More specifically; her work examines the relationship between the individual and the collective in emerging performance ensembles.

To book tickets please use the link below:

<http://movement-stillness-a-scratch-performance.eventbrite.co.uk>

Twitter: www.twitter.com/Salford_Media

Facebook: www.facebook.com/SalfordMediaFestival?fref=ts

Blog: www.createatsalford.tumblr.com

